Beverley

¶ These folowynge be the p̄iuyleges pardon and Indulgence graunted to the B̄retherne and Susters / & benefactours of the College churche of seynt Johñ of Beuerley.

Irste our holy Father in god Alexander the. iii. Pope of that name by his holy grace / an hathe gracyously graunted vnto all men and women beynge very penytent / contryte / an that to the sustentacion helpynge o̅r maynteynynge with any parte of theyr goodes gyu che of the blessyd confessour seynt Johñ the. vii. parte of theyr penaunce enioyned / mercy gyuen and haue graunted a C. dayes of pardon. And grāteth vnto all the messangers / and p̄yestou that and if the Churche be Interdicted & suspended / may cause the doores to be opened / and all manet and sayd solempnely in the honour and worshyp of almyghty god / and by the vertue of this p̄yuyleg Alexander hath graunted to euery Brother and Suster that hath a letter / o̅r wrytynge of this holy co uerley shall in lyke wyse cause all dyuyne seruyce to be songe and sayd / and the bodyes of th̄yr B eneſ the churchyarde / excepte they be accursed by name.

¶ Item our holy father pope Innocent the. iiii. of that name / of his mercyfull grace hath graunted t o this Fraternyte / for their forgotten synnes in tyme of confession / remyssion / and othes made o̅r swo nesse of mynde and vowes broken excepte Jherusalem / all offences / o̅r trespasse made to fader & mod excepte they lay in vyolence hande vpon theym. and that by transgressour of theyr fayth / be released.

¶ Also our holy father Innocent aforesayd / and .x. Popes holy fathers of theyr moste holy [illegible] gence and pardon aforesayd vnto the brethern / and susters / and benef[illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] holy grace [illegible] and women / and all benefactours of god / and seynt

¶ Also our holy Fader aforesayd hath graunted to all the brethern and susters / and benefactours and women of Relygion that Ignorantly by obseruyon o̅r by negligence hath forgotten theyr dy defaute of cuyll bokes / o̅r walkynges on nyghtes in sykenesse / o̅r in helth yerely doynge theyr dell of Beuerley full remyssion.

¶ Also our holy father aforesayd hath graūted to euery brother & suster of seynt Johñ of Beuerley an able ghostly father / the whiche may yerely graunte theym full remyssion of all theyr synnes no belonge to our holy father the pope.

¶ Item our holy fader pope Johñ the. xii. of that name hath confyrmed all the Indulgenc & pard Johñ cōmaundeth straytly that in no maner of wyse no persone / make Impedyment to hurte / no in worde nor dede. In payne of the great Indignacion of almyghty god / and the holy apostels Pe

¶ Also. xxiiii. Bysshops of the court of Rome euery of theym hath graunted to euery brother and houre / and extreme of deth. xl. dayes of pardon that gyue / o̅r sende vnto the College and churche o

¶ Also this blessyd confessour seynt Johñ in the tyme that he was Archebysshop of yorke / hath gra all them that be brethern and susters vnto the fraternyte and brotherhede.

¶ Also my lorde Cardynall chaunceller of Englande hath graunted a C. dayes of pardon.
¶ And also there is in the same College of seynt Johñ of Beuerley. xxx. prestes prayinge dayly f and good doers / and euery daye in the yere. iii. solempne masses / that is to wytte a masse of our L ge with the chaptere masse and masse of Requiem by note / and. iiii. tymes a yere generall dirige

¶ Also our Souerayngne lorde Kynge Henry the. viii. hathe gyuen out his Patent vnder his bro prayynge to all theym that be his trewe louers and subiectes fauourably to receyue the Messangers more hath cōmaunded to all and synguler hed officers / that is to say his Mayers / Sheryffes / Ba che wardens of euery Cytie / Borough / and Towne / as well within the lyberties / as without that and charyte of euery well disposed persone / and it so gatheryd / to be delyuered to the Colle of god and seynt Johñ and the prayer of the place

Removed from A. 7. 23 Linc.

Another copy from the same binding is now in Gough York 57 (Appendix, p. lxxxviii)